THE STORY

Zamaria Zephyr has lived her life surrounded by magic, but never meant to touch it.

Raised among enchanted texts in her family's quiet bookshop, Zamaria has always sensed that some books listen back, that certain symbols shift beneath her gaze, and that there may be more to her family's world than she has ever been told.

When an unexpected encounter awakens questions that can no longer be ignored, she is drawn beyond the familiar shelves of home and into a world of old secrets, competing beliefs, and a magical history far more complicated than she imagined. The deeper she ventures, the more she must question what she has been taught about magic, and what it might be asking of her.

WHY READERS WILL LOVE IT

- A bookshop that listens back. Enchanted texts, shifting symbols and a heroine who was never meant to touch magic.
- A world with real depth. Two opposing magical traditions, the Star-Mark, the Crystal Caverns, and a time when magic was a partnership, not a weapon.
- Big questions, human choices. Magic, identity, discovery and the decisions that can reshape worlds.
- A collectible first edition. 50 hand-signed, individually numbered hardcovers, with optional personal inscription.
- Readers can try it free. Chapter One is free to read, and an online quiz sorts fans into their magical tradition.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Katey Rae is a fantasy author crafting immersive worlds where ancient magic, forbidden knowledge, and deeply human choices collide. She is the architect of The Arcane Odyssey, an epic fantasy series beginning with The Awakening. Her stories live in the space between wonder and danger, where every spell demands a price and every truth casts a shadow.
